

AJAP NEWS

Local and International News from Association of Jewish Aerospace Professionals

 February 10th, 2018 |  0 Comments

AJAP Welcomes the Italian "Società Italiana Aviazione Civile" as its New Member

(AJAP) — AJAP is delighted to welcome the Civil Aviation Society of Italy ("Società Italiana Aviazione Civile") as a member organization of the Association of Jewish Aerospace Professionals.

"Società Italiana Aviazione Civile" is a non-profit Historical and Cultural Institution with the goal to enhance the National Italian Aeronautical heritage and unify all former and current employees of the Italian Civil Aviation Industry, Airlines, Italian Air Force, all students from Aeronautical Schools and also simple aviation fans. Società Italiana Aviazione Civile is planning to host a conference about the Italian Jewish Heroes in the Italy's National Aviation. Società Italiana Aviazione Civile has already informed the Embassy of the State of Israel in Rome about their plans.

AJAP is delighted to support Società Italiana Aviazione Civile in any way we can during the conference and encourage our members to visit their website for more details: <https://aeronauticacivile.com>

Article by: Russ Sherwood, AJAP, Daytona Beach

READ MORE

Search for...

Jpin AJAP

LATEST NEWS

Anti-semitism in the US Airlines?

AJAP is embarking on a mission to investigate several discrimination claims against jewish airline pilots, including denial of interviews and employment opportunities.

READ MORE

Fundraising for Israeli Air Force pilots.

AJAP is conducting fundraising event which will support IAF, who wish to transition to civilian flying in Israel or abroad.

READ MORE